What the agent says... “,, Material Information:

Located just 500 metres from Bognor Regis seafront promenade, 400 metres from the Town centre and opposite the Magna Tandoori (Chicken Jalfrezi is highly recommended) is this 3-bedroom mid terraced home. Constructed in 1896 and benefiting from high ceilings and bay windows as befits the era the accommodation comprises spacious lounge, separate diner, downstairs WC, large open plan kitchen with additional area created by a conservatory type enclosure, and upstairs are 3 double bedrooms (the main bedroom is a massive 5 x 4 metres) and a separate WC and bathroom.

The current seller has installed a permanent ladder to the loft which provides handy access to a well-appointed storage room, and the property has gas central heating, double glazed windows and retains period features such as doors and fireplaces.

Outside, there is a small courtyard style rear garden that is fully enclosed by walls. To the front is a small area leading to the street, that supports parking with Residents Permits (and some 2-hour bays). Further uncontrolled parking is available nearby.

Viewings are strongly recommended.
